	Personal Testimony ~ Amazing Grace
Hymn of Dedication	Audrey Assad
Benediction	David Morehouse

*When you spread out your hands,
I will hide My eyes from you;
Even though you make many prayers, I will not hear.
Your hands are full of blood.
"Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean;
put away the evil of your doings from before My eyes.
Cease to do evil, learn to do good; seek justice,
rebuke the oppressor. Defend the fatherless, plead for the widow.
Come now, and let us reason together," says the Lord,
"though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red like crimson, they shall be as wool. If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the land;
but if you refuse and rebel,
you shall be devoured by the sword";
for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.
Isaiah 1:15-20 NKJV*

Truths We Hold Dear

As a Christian church, Seventh-day Adventists are a faith community rooted in the beliefs described by the Holy Scriptures summarized as follows.

One God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, a unity of three co-eternal persons. (Deut. 6:4; Matthew. 28:19)

The death of Jesus on Calvary is the atoning sacrifice for our sins and by God's grace through faith in His shed blood we are saved from sin and its penalty. (Ephesians 2: 8, 9)

By accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and personal Savior, our sins are forgiven and we receive a new heart where-by we renounce the sinful ways of the world. (John 1:12)

The righteousness of Christ, our Intercessor in the heavenly sanctuary, by His transforming grace empowers us to live a loving, Christ-centered life in the home and before the world. (Heb. 4:15, 16)

The Bible is God's inspired Word, the only rule of faith and practice for the Christian. (2 Peter 1:21)

The Ten Commandments are a transcript of the character of God and a revelation of His will, including the observance of the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath of the Lord and the memorial of creation. (Exodus 20:3-17)

The soon coming of Jesus is the "blessed hope." (1 Thess. 4:16, 17)

The Spirit of Prophecy, a spiritual gift, is an identifying mark of the remnant church. (Revelation 14:12; 19:10)

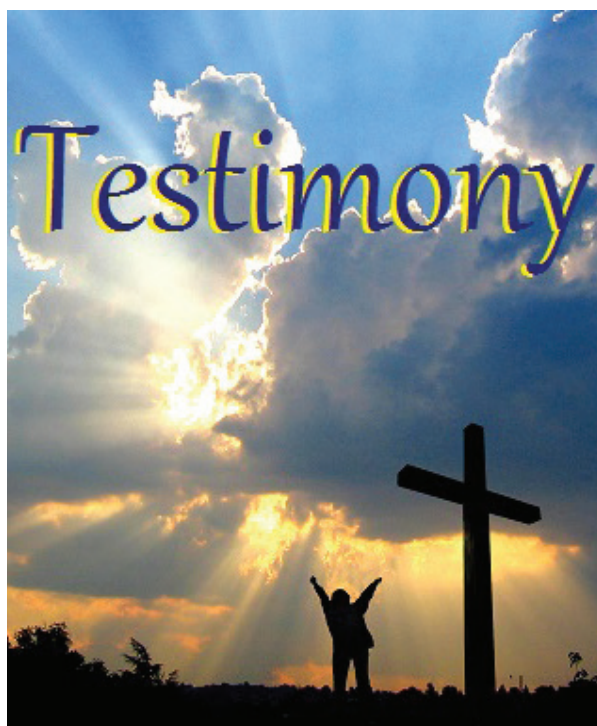

Tithes and offerings support church organization. (Malachi 3:8-10)

The human body is the temple of the Holy Spirit and should be cared for in a manner pleasing to the Lord. (1 Cor. 10:31)

Life choices should be governed by Biblical principles. (Phil. 2:5-8)

Baptism by immersion as an expression of one's faith. (Acts 2:37-38)

The brotherhood of, and love for, the entire human race. (2 Peter 1:5-7)

Thoughtful Quote

In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the Lord, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the Lord of hosts." This personal testimony to Zerubbabel has been left on record for our special encouragement in time of trial. Zerubbabel had been sorely tried through all the years since he had led the Israelites forth from Babylon. God has a purpose in sending trial to His children. He never leads them otherwise than they would choose to be led if they could see the end from the beginning, and discern the glory of the purpose which they are fulfilling. He subjects them to discipline to humble them,—to lead them, through trial and affliction, to see their weakness and to draw near unto Him. As they cry to Him for help, He responds, saying, "Here am I." Christians are Christ's jewels. They are to shine brightly for Him, shedding forth the light of His loveliness. Their luster depends on the polishing they receive. They may choose to be polished or to remain unpolished. But every one who is pronounced worthy of a place in the Lord's temple must submit to the polishing process. Without the polishing that the Lord gives they can reflect no more light than a common pebble.
